

Best breakfasts in London: 18 spots to kick-start your day

Forget brunch! These brilliant breakfasts in London are for the folks who don't hang about in the morning. From posh pastries to proper fry-ups, we've got a wake-up call to suit everyone.

Best breakfasts in west London

They say 'west is best', and when its breakfast scene is this good, who are we to disagree?

The Princess Royal, Notting Hill

What: The Princess Royal, part of Cubitt House, serves up a mega breakfast Monday to Sunday. Overseen by chef director Ben Tish, the menu features much-loved classics with a twist such as scrambled eggs with wild mushrooms, summer truffle and Parmesan, and avocado flatbreads with watercress, rose harissa, preserved lemon and dukkha. For those with a sweet tooth, you can choose from the likes of ricotta hotcakes with honey butter, caramelised orange and English strawberries, and house granola with orange blossom honey.

Where: 47 Hereford Road, W2 5AH

Book now: The Princess Royal