

CUBITT
London Pubs
HOUSE®

A LOCAL GUIDE
BELGRAVIA

▼ ▼ ▼ ▼ ▼ ▼ ▼ ▼ ▼ ▼ ▼

Belgravia, located in the heart of London, is an affluent and charming neighbourhood renowned for its elegant Georgian architecture, pristine garden squares, and upscale boutiques. With its proximity to major attractions and cultural landmarks, Belgravia offers visitors a perfect blend of history, culture, and luxury.

24 HOURS IN BELGRAVIA

MORNING:

Start your day with a leisurely stroll around Belgrave Square Garden, one of London's grandest garden squares, and marvel at the beautiful landscapes and architectural splendour. Then head to The Orange Pub for a delightful breakfast. Indulge in a Mediterranean-inspired breakfast, freshly baked pastries and artisanal coffee as you soak in the vibrant atmosphere of this charming local hotspot. It's then a short stroll to one of Belgravia's most iconic landmarks, Buckingham Palace. While the palace itself may not be open to the public year-round, you can witness the famous Changing of the Guard ceremony outside the palace gates every day at 10.45am. The ceremony lasts about 45 mins.

AFTERNOON:

After a healthy dose of pomp and ceremony, why not stop for an elegant lunch at The Alfred Tennyson. Named after Lord Tennyson, the legendary local Poet Laureate and located on the quaint cobbled streets of the neighbourhoods he once called home, The Alfred Tennyson claims eminence as one of Belgravia's finest pubs and a true neighbourhood gem. Next, take in the nearby shops, Harrods and the designer boutiques of Sloane Street are a stone's throw away. Or, if shopping is not a priority, take a stroll through nearby Hyde Park instead where you can enjoy a leisurely boat ride on the Serpentine and in one of London's finest green spaces.

EVENING:

After taking in the sights and sounds of the local area, book in for dinner at a Belgravia institution, The Thomas Cubitt, for a perfect end to your day. The Thomas Cubitt (named after London's legendary master architect) has earned itself a local reputation as the place to convene, for magnificent food and wine, whatever the occasion. Relax and unwind as you mingle with locals and enjoy the excellent selection of wine, bespoke cocktails and fine British cooking.

SCAN TO BOOK

THE ORANGE

37-39 Pimlico Road,
Belgravia,
London, SW1W 8NE

+44 (0) 20 7881 9844

THE ALFRED TENNYSON

10 Motcomb St,
Belgravia,
London, SW1X 8LA

+44 (0) 20 7730 6074

THE THOMAS CUBITT

44 Elizabeth Street,
Belgravia,
London, SW1W 9PA

+44 (0) 20 7730 6060

CUBITT
London Pubs
HOUSE®

FAMILY FRIENDLY
GUIDE TO THE
LOCAL AREA
BELGRAVIA

Belgravia and its surrounding areas offer a blend of cultural attractions, green spaces, and family-friendly activities that are perfect for a memorable day out with kids in London. From picturesque garden squares to interactive museums, there's something for everyone to enjoy.

With plenty to see and do within walking distance, here are some of our favourite activities to keep the whole family entertained.

START YOUR DAY AT THE ORANGE PUB FOR BREAKFAST:

Kickstart your family adventure with a Mediterranean-inspired breakfast at The Orange Pub. Known for its sumptuous décor and warm ambience, this family-friendly establishment offers a selection of delicious breakfast dishes from freshly baked flatbreads with artisanal toppings to scrambled eggs and organic yogurt granola with fresh fruits.

Follow breakfast with a visit to Buckingham Palace, the official residence of the King. While the palace itself may not be open to the public year-round, you can witness the famous Changing of the Guard ceremony outside the palace gates, which is sure to captivate kids of all ages.

After experiencing the pomp and pageantry of Buckingham Palace, head to nearby Hyde Park for some outdoor fun. Rent a rowboat or pedal boat on the Serpentine Lake, explore the Diana, Princess of Wales Memorial Playground with its imaginative play areas, or simply enjoy a leisurely stroll through the park.

LUNCH AT THE ALFRED TENNYSON:

After a morning of exploring, refuel at The Alfred Tennyson. With its inviting atmosphere and delicious menu, this is the perfect spot for a leisurely family lunch. Enjoy traditional British dishes made with locally sourced ingredients.

After lunch, why not venture into Kensington & Chelsea, home to some of London's most famous attractions including The Science Museum and Natural History Museum, where kids can explore the wonders of science and nature through immersive displays and interactive exhibits.

If all this exploring leaves you hungry, stop by The Thomas Cubitt, a beloved local, family-friendly spot, known for its cosy interiors. Relax and unwind as you mingle with locals and enjoy fine British cuisine and a healthy children's menu. If you have any energy left, round off your day in nearby Victoria. Catch a show at one of the many theatres in the area, such as the Apollo Victoria Theatre or the Victoria Palace Theatre, with family-friendly productions and musicals.

CH

@cubitthouse

www.cubitthouse.co.uk

© 2024 CUBITT HOUSE LTD.
10 MOTCOMB STREET,
BELGRAVIA, LONDON SW1X 8LA
COMPANY NO. 05399542

