The Orange Boutique Hotel, Pimlico

IN A SENTENCE
A characterful and decorative pub and boutique hotel nestled among Pimlico's stellar design stores.

DESIGN DOWNLOAD
Just behind Victoria, Pimlico has become an interiors enclave, brimming with brands like Carl Hansen & Son and Pinch. And with just as good design credentials comes The Orange, where relaxed dining contrasts with patterned and layered bedrooms – a perfect blend of comfort and aesthetic.

IN THE NEIGHBOURHOOD
Not only is this a strangely quiet Central London location, it's also walking distance to everything you could want to see. From the Saatchi Gallery to the Sobo Home store with architecture that makes it feel like a work of art, it's all right on the doorstep.

DON'T MISS
Perhaps most importantly, the breakfast menu is particularly strong, the blood orange marmalade and orange blossom honey being worth the room price alone.
